Closing Prayer

Please stand for these hymns

For he who has died is freed from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him, knowing that Christ having been raised from the dead, is never to die again; death no longer is master over Him.

Romans 6:7-9

"Even when walking through the dark valley of death I will not be afraid, for you are close beside me, guarding, guiding all the way."

Psalm 23:4

On February 11, 1861 President-elect Lincoln left his home in Springfield to begin his rail journey to Washington. Standing on the rear platform of his railroad car, he bid the townspeople farewell. He closed his remarks with these words; "Today I leave you. I go to assume a task more difficult than that which devolved upon General Washington. The great God which guided him must help me. Without that assistance I shall surely fail; with it, I cannot fail." The same is true for us, regardless of the tasks we face. Without God's assistance, we cannot succeed. We may get the dishes washed, the laundry folded, and the beds made..... we may get our work done without accident or incident..... we may find what we want at the market and manage to keep a schedule. But without God's help, our lives would be a confused mess.
